Chairperson Annetzberger Reports on the Activities of the Commission

Recreation Commission Reports to the Huron Township Board

BY MARGARET O'KELLEY

At the December 10th Township Board meeting the Recreation Commission Chairperson Mike Annetzberger addressed the Board and brought them up to date. He spoke of the Halloween display and festivities during Halloween night.

He said there were between 600-700 people and they cooked over 300 hotdogs; running out of hot dogs. He went on to say the hay rides were great and thanked Jim Bowers for driving the hay wagon. He also thanked Clerk Dawnelle Bowers who also helped along with Trustee Mary Lou Carey. He thanked his own children for their help as well at Mr. Glaab for the use of his property.

He described the Christmas Tree Lighting as a success; describing the turnout to be a couple of hundred people. He thanked the Concerned Citizens Coalition (3C's) for their donation (the refreshments) and thanked the DPW Terry Pinter, Melvin Sheets and "the gang" for their help.

He continued by thanking Supervisor John Mitchell for addressing the gathering that night and thanked Clerk Bowers, Trustees Adkins and O'Kelley for attending. He also thanked the fire department for their help particularly Debbie Bowman who drove the fire truck that brought Santa to the kids. He thanked the police department for their help.

He described the first fall recreation program as a success. He advised that about 100 people signed up for the various programs and the "little kid" programs seemed to be the most popular. He said they had "some hiccups" on the way and a few programs had to be cancelled. However, he said, the program was on track.

He advised the citizens that the winter program was starting up and would begin sometime in mid-January 2004. He showed the Board a yellow brochure that was circulating in the community and said citizens could pick up the brochure at the Township hall. He added the Downriver YWCA could be contacted for additional information. He provided the phone number of 734-284-9030.

Regarding the future he said he hoped to make the recreation program in Huron Township bigger and better. Supervisor Mitchell thanked him and the commission for all their fine work.

Huron Township Chamber of Commerce Barn Dance

BY MARGARET O'KELLEY

The Huron Township Chamber of Commerce held its annual Barn Dance on November 8, 2004 at Apple Charlie's Barn. Joe Prater and the Huron Valley Express, accompanied by Pat Wright on the keyboard, provided the entertainment. The catering was by Laraine.

There were approximately 100 in attendance with several local dignitaries present (see photos). Huron Chamber members were very generous with a wide assortment of donations for door prizes and the silent auction.

If you missed this year's Barn Dance, be sure to attend next year's. It was a grand evening full of fun and entertainment.

Left: Judge Tina Brooks Green, Lianne Clair Parrott, Judge David Parrott, Representative Kathleen Law, and Teresa Lewis enjoyed the Barn Dance festivities.

Chief Russow and wife, Yvonne.

Suzanne Oakley, Otto Cerni, and Judge Brian Oakley.

Ken Wright and Donna Baylor tapping their toes to the music.

Dave Trosin and Tom Wymert enjoyed the menu, too.

Huron Township Rotary Sees Successful Season

It was another successful season of giving for the Huron Township Rotary Goodfellows, but it first had to be a wonderful season of receiving.

Standing on the cold corners of the township on December 6, the annual sale of the Goodfellow Newspaper began. High school students, members of the fire department, the Rotary, and township employees, wrapped up for the wind and wore extra pairs of gloves. The generosity of those who stopped and dropped their donations into the plastic containers was overwhelming.

The donation of can goods from so many sources was inspiring. Summit Academy Junior High sent over 1537 cans, Huron High School, under the advisement of Mrs. Wendy Gietzen, held a contest; and homerooms competed to get the most cans in as well as the many toys that came in too. Individuals sent over toys, including one former township resident who donated over $400 in Disney toys. Miller Elementary and Brown Elementary donated gloves, scarves, hats, and more cans of food. Renton added more can goods. Anonymously, 100 turkeys appeared from the farms in the township. The employees at Swift and their team leader Denise, donated cases of food, and provided toys and money for the needy families that would receive the Christmas baskets. The HT Chamber of Commerce held a successful Toys for Tots drive and sent over many beautiful dolls, trucks, plush characters, and games and books. And, lastly, the Wayne County Gun Club provided additional toys for the distribution. Dennis Kemp, Summit Academy Middle School Principal, saw to it that the can goods his students had collected were included in the Goodfellow donations this year.

The early December 21st Sunday morning gathering of some seventy-five individuals, including the Rotary and their families, the fire department and the fire explorers, members of the Chamber of Commerce, Outdoor Challenge, participants from Swift, high school students, and additional township residents, began the process of sorting and separating the can goods, counting up the toys, and then packing the bags and boxes to fill each of the 70 orders that would reach out and provide families with additional support at this time of year. Each family would receive a turkey (or two, depending on the size of the family), toys appropriate to the age and gender of the children under sixteen, and can goods to get them through the season. The baskets also included gift certificates redeemable at Country Pantry for additional food products and necessary items for the family.

When all of this was over another family name was submitted. The store manager for Meijer's, himself a resident of the township, stepped up and provided coats, gloves, and toys for all the children of this family. They had recently relocated to Huron Township and were not suitably prepared to face the cold weather that would be coming.

Reaching some 70 families is a remarkable accomplishment. But more than that, the generosity of so many that we live with in the beautiful and bountiful township of Huron is remarkable.

Tips from Tina

USE EVERYTHING. DON'T THROW IT AWAY.

Day-old bread = cut it up and use for croutons or bread crumbs.
Empty plastic yogurt = Fill with water to make giant ice cubes for lemonade or punch.
Butter wrappers = Save in a bag in the fridge and use to grease pans and baking sheets.
Cereal and cracker crumbs = Use to coat chicken or fish for a crispy crust.
Cheese ends = Put in food processor with butter, wine or beer and serve as a spread.

CREATIVE COUPONING

Check minimum purchase requirements. If you have to buy more than you need, it's no bargain.
 Find out whether your store redeems both in-store coupons and manufacturer's coupons on the same item.
 Don't buy items you don't need or want just because you have a coupon.
 If it's not a brand your family prefers, check to see if generic will save you more.
 Keep your coupons handy. Put them all in an envelope and store in the glove compartment.

For entertainment purposes only.

The Second Annual Night scheduled for the Fine and Performing Arts will be
January 22 at 7 p.m. in the Huron Civic Auditorium.

Following the success of last year's evening, students from Miller, Brown, Renton, and the high school, are preparing their dance routines, rehearsing their vocal or instrumental selections, and wrapping up on the art and photography projects that will be exhibited in the hallways of the recently renovated high school.

Admission is by donation, and the donations will go towards the Al Gessert Memorial Scholarship for the Fine and Performing Arts. The first scholarship was given last year to senior Leah Franklin, who is studying art at Eastern Michigan University.

We look forward to an evening of entertainment and lots of visual presentation by our students from the Huron School District.

Setting Resolution for 2004?

Take a tip from Ben Franklin:

Ben Franklin on the 13 Virtues

My intention being to acquire the habitude of all these virtues, I judged it would be well not to distract my attention by attempting the whole at once, but to fix it on one of them at a time; and, when I should be master of that, then to proceed to another, and so on, till I should have gone through the thirteen; and, as the previous acquisition of some might facilitate the acquisition of certain others, I arranged them with that view, as they stand (below):

1. TEMPERANCE — Eat not to dullness; drink not to elevation.
2. SILENCE — Speak not but what may benefit other or yourself; avoid trifling conversation.
3. ORDER — Let all your things have their places; let each part of your business have its time.
4. RESOLUTION — Resolve to perform what you ought; perform without fail what you resolve.
5. FRUGALITY — Make no expense but to do good to others or yourself, i.e., waste nothing.
6. INDUSTRY — Lose no time; be always employed in something useful; cut off all unnecessary actions.
7. SINCERITY — Use no hurtful deceit; think innocently and justly; and, if you speak, speak accordingly.
8. JUSTICE — Wrong none by doing injuries, or omitting the benefits that are your duty.
9. MODERATION — Avoid extremes; forbear resenting injuries so much as you think they deserve.
10. CLEANLINESS — Tolerate no uncleanliness in body, clothes, or habitation.
11. TRANQUILITY — Be not disturbed at trifles, or at accidents common or unavoidable.
12. CHASTITY — Rarely use venery but for health or offspring, never to dullness, weakness, or the injury
13. HUMILITY — Imitate Jesus and Socrates.
